On June 5, 2010, RAMON SOLIS was arrested by The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Indianapolis, Indiana, and charged with possession of cocaine. On April 13, 2011 SOLIS was sentenced to 46 months custody of the Bureau of prisons (BOP) followed by a three year term of supervised release ordered by United States District Judge William T. Lawrence out of the Southern District of Indiana in case #1:10CR00110-002. On September 17, 2012 SOLIS was assigned to the Mid Valley Halfway House, Edinburg, TX, by BOP.

On November 30, 2012 at approximately 19:00 hours Deputy U.S. Marshal Reynaldo Gonzalez (DUSM) was notified by U.S. Marshal Command Center in Houston Texas that they received a call from BOP that RAMON SOLIS failed to return to the Halfway House located at 402 West Chapin Road, Edinburg, Texas, 78539. On November 30, 2012, at approximately 09:11 am, inmate SOLIS signed out to work and left for lunch at 12:00 noon but failed to return to work. Inmate SOLIS was supposed to return to work after his lunch hour but did not, and was not authorized to go anywhere else. Inmate SOLIS also failed to return to the Mid Valley Halfway House by 8 pm like he was scheduled to. Inmate SOLIS left without taking any personal belongings. Several checks were made by Mid Valley House staff in an attempt to locate inmate SOLIS, but were unsuccessful.

Inmate Solis was placed on escape status and his whereabouts are unknown at this time. On Saturday December 1, 2012, U.S. Marshal Reynaldo Gonzalez received a phone call from Inmate SOLIS's sister (Lorena Solis) who stated that inmate SOLIS called her from a Mexican phone number stating that he was in Mexico and for her not to worry about him, that he was ok. Lorena stated that was the extent of their phone conversation
